If I ask my friends they shrug their shoulders and assure me it is impossible to forecast the future. There may be reaction, there may be a strong and general effort to check foreign influence; I have even been assured that within the next twenty years the position of the foreign missionaries in China may be practically untenable. One thing is patent to the dullest observer--an amazing change has taken place, and is taking place, which is little short of a silent yet sweeping revolution. I am myself conscious of the difference since I was last in China, twenty-four years ago. At that time education on Western lines was at a discount even among missionaries in China. Even in Hongkong under the British flag, I found...
