An inspiring book of diversified poems and informative biblical studies bringing hope to the hopeless, courage to the despairing; and joyful peace to all. The poems express the authors thoughts, emotions, and experiences which have been and still are a part of their lives. The section of biblical studies presents reasonable aspects and non-denominational perspectives of Gods Everlasting Covenant of Sovereign Grace by looking through the lens of fulfilled eschatology, thus acquiring informative provenances kindled to emulate both knowledgeable perspective and critical analysis of what the Christians World should look like in a new paradigm. The primary author prevailed through a death experience from being poisoned, thus gaining enlightenment and insight of life because of it. However, both authors are resolved to voluntarily bring the beauty of wholeness to as many recipients as possible through poetry and proven modality newness of Scripture. The Marriage of the Bride of Christ in AD 66 taken to Heaven during Christs Parousia in the cloud; and the splitting of the Mount of Olives like a carpet which supernaturally provided a safe exit for the First Century Saints from their enemies will be of special interest for every believer witness no matter what age, generation, circumstance, or situation such finds themselves within or without. It is of the authors conviction that as much more trustworthy information arises to accepting the oldest manuscripts of interpretive wordings and contextual understandings without adding or reducing any other significance of spiritual meaningfulness to the apparent Truth of Gods Word shall, with serious study, in time exhibit Jesus Way and Life as a Three-Cord Trinity to be the more-abundant-life beyond any and all other religious entities; because Authentic Christianity...
