They soon scrambled off their chairs, and Molly, standing on tiptoe, seized hold of a bunch of lilies tied up with ribbon that was on the side table, and each of her brothers eagerly possessed himself of a neat brown paper parcel. It was Father s birthday. The occasion was always kept as a holiday, and the children were waiting 140 for his call to summon them to his dressing-room. I think he must be fifty! remarked Alec. I fink he s fifteen, said their little sister. She spoke in a tone of conviction, accompanied by a toss of her short curls. Don t be silly, Mollikins, replied the boys with a laugh; but she said she was sure she was right. Halloa, Kidlets! Come along down! came the shout of a manly voice. There was a stampede, and a race as to who should get there first. Molly arrived a bad third, but it was she who was first for him, for he...
