Orrin G. Hatch (chairman of the committee), presiding. Also present: Senators Thurmond, Simpson, Grassley, Leahy, and Feingold. Opening Statement of Hon. Orrin G. Hatch, a U.S. Senator From the State of Utah The Chairman. Good afternoon. I would like to thank our distinguished panelists for joining us today for what I believe to be an illuminating and lively discussion and examination of recent developments in the telecommunications industry. Telecommunications are a very basic, vital element of our daily lives, and at the same time represent one of the most dynamic and exciting arenas of American business today. From its very earliest days, telecommunications technology has literally revolutionized the way we lead our lives and conduct our business. Imagine how different our lives would be were we unable to telephone our...
