Reviews

This published publication is wonderful. Of course, it is actually engage in, still an interesting and amazing literature. It is extremely difficult to leave it before concluding, once you begin to read the book.

This item is printed on demand - Print on Demand Neuware - Essay from the year 2009 in the subject Sociology - Law, Delinquency, Abnormal Behavior, grade: A, University of Derby, course: BA in Sociology and Film and Television Studies, language: English, abstract: I have critiqued an article Get Ready to Duck: Bouncers and the Realities of Ethnographic Research on Violent Groups (Winlow, S., Hobbs, D., Hadfield, P., Lister, S., (2001) Get Ready to Duck: Bouncers and the Realities of Ethnographic Research on Violent Groups , British Journal of Criminology, 41, 536-548.) that deals with violence in a job role. Bouncers have a reputation for violence and the following article investigates the bouncer s role using qualitative research. The method used is covert ethnography. I will examine this article in terms of the methodological approaches, size of the sample, and the moral and ethical problems with the method used; the use of deceit; the possibility of using violence whilst working on the door and views on ethical problems. I will investigate the strengths of the article and identify the limitations of the article. 12 pp. Englisch.
