ON THE ROCKS (PAPERBACK)

Createspace, United States, 2014. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Wickedly funny and unabashedly smartass, Annie will rock your world. She has got a mouth on her. If the boys can say it by golly, so can she. Don t matter where you come from, by the time you finish this book, yore liable to be talkin like a cowhand and walkin bowlegged. An Amazon UK Top 100 Bestseller. Love cowboys? We got em with twist! Shots erupt. Annie is stuck in a crossfire. Cowpunchin turns to adventure. Good lookin men come out in force and laughter abounds if only the dry gulchers would stop trying to kill them all. [Following is the official review of On the Rocks by Barbara Neville.] On the Rocks is a Western set in an intriguing. The greatest strength of this book is its narrator, Roxanne Rockefeller, a profane, feisty cowgirl. Neville has created a genuinely fresh and well-developed character in Roxanne, a young woman who rides out in her best riding finery, complete with guns, a knife. and grenades. Early in the book, when it seems that Roxanne is a bit too prone to swearing (take a guess at which cuss word is repeated as the first seven words of the book!), Roxanne gives a spirited defense of her filthy mouth, which both humorously justifies her style of talking, while adding depth to her character. I would have thoroughly enjoyed it if the novel were all about Roxanne rambling about the state of the world and her opinions on everything, but as it stands, On the Rocks launches into a page-turning adventure. Over the course of this book, Roxanne explores, and meets a variety of people with diverse backgrounds, but these characters...
