Singleton, of Mississippi: In the House of Representatives, May 16, 1876 The House having under consideration the report from the Committee on Printing - Mr. Singleton said: Mr. Speaker: At an early day of the session of Congress a resolution was adopted instructing the Committee on Printing to investigate the books and accounts of the Congressional Printer; to inquire into the affairs of the Government Printing Office; the cost of printing for Congress, and the several governmental Departments; the comparative cost of having it done in said office and by private contract; whether proper economy has been practiced in this branch of the public service; whether the amount of public printing may not be lessened; and requiring said committee to make full report of said investigation, together with the testimony taken. Your committee entered upon this duty at once, and have labored faithfully and diligently to evolve the truth and arrive at just and proper conclusions in respect to the several propositions contained in said resolution. We found many difficulties...
