Y. 192. ) Vans, J. The plaintiff, as president of an unincorporated association consisting of more than seven members, brought this action against Caroline Roosa and Mary C. Wright for an accounting and to recover the funds, books and papers belonging to the society. The answers of the defendants, among other denials, put at issue the allegation that the plaintiff was president of the association, but no aflirmative or equitable defense was pleaded. The trial court found that the plaintiff, at the time of the commencement of the action, and for some time prior thereto,...
