For the last twelve years, Raul Montenga has sizzled with erotic dreams of the girl he left behind. When he finally comes back home, determined to find her, it's not to Penelope's warm welcome but to a cold shoulder and her icy rejection. So he's more than a little surprised to answer his door one day to find her tomboy daughter standing nervously on his porch. . . claiming to be his child. Dr. Penelope Gibson's worst nightmare isn't that her daughter might want to know who her father was. It's facing the man she foolishly spent her youth loving and keeping him at arms length. Now he's back and the feelings she'd thought frozen solid are melting in his wake. Along with her inhibitions, her clothes and her better judgment. But when he's determined to win back her lovebody and soul can she trust him enough to try? Or will everything she's built without him go up in smoke?
